

Building Staff Confidence in Communication Support

Allens Croft Nursery School

What is this showcase about?

How Allens Croft Nursery School used action research to build staff confidence in supporting children's communication using the Early Years OAG.

Expect to see...

- How staff confidence was developed through training and support
- How communication strategies were used across the setting
- How the OAG helped guide reflection and next steps

Download

Story of Implementation