

Supporting Sensory Needs in Everyday Practice

The Nest Nursery

What is this showcase about?

How The Nest used action research to help staff support children's sensory needs more consistently in everyday routines.

Expect to see...

- How expressive language was observed and reviewed
- How staff were supported through coaching and mentoring
- How the environment and routines were improved to support language

Download

Story of Implementation