

Supporting Transition Through Home-School Partnership

Glenmead Primary School

What is this showcase about?

An approach to supporting children and families through key transitions using clear communication, familiarisation and consistent routines.

Strong links with parents ensure that children can rehearse and revisit key information at home, supporting confidence, readiness and emotional regulation.

Expect to see...

- A video used to introduce new staff, environments and routines
- Examples of how online communication support transition
- Simple transition booklets and resources shared with families
- Practical ideas for strengthening parent engagement during transition periods
