Celebrations

At school we do celebrations such as. egypt SATS and things like mas eia and more

“We are all welcome. We are all unique.”

Lozells Junior and Infant School and Nursery / Y1

"The jellyfish are different unique like all of us. We all belong even if we don't look the same. We feel included and respected in our school like the jellyfish in the ocean."

Lozells Junior and Infant School and Nursery / Y2

“At our school, dinner time is a time when everyone can come together and feel included. We celebrate different cultures by having special food days where we try foods from around the world. This helps us learn about other people’s traditions and show that everyone’s background is important. I think this makes our school a welcoming place where everyone feels respected and part of our school community”

Lindsworth School /
Special School

“This is a picture of our Girls Club. Since joining, it has helped me come to school every day and feel excited to be here. Being part of the group makes me feel happy, joyful and amazing. I have the confidence to speak my mind, try new things and join in different activities. Girls Club makes me feel like I belong.”

Lindsworth School / Special School

Hotel

“Inclusion looks like a hotel because everyone is welcome and no matter who you are, you can get in. They have elevators so everyone can go upstairs or go downstairs, they have food and water and they have a comfortable environment.”

Leigh Primary School

Braidwood School for the Deaf / Special School

"Our Voices lift us higher!"

Anglesey Speech and Language Resource Base, Lozells

"I work hard, then I get to play with my dinosaurs."

St Benedict's Primary School / SEND, mainstream / Year 2

"What makes my school feel safe and mine."

Marlborough Primary School

"What helps me feel safe, happy and included."

Marlborough Primary School

“I feel happy at school because my teacher makes me feel respected and makes me feel like I belong here.

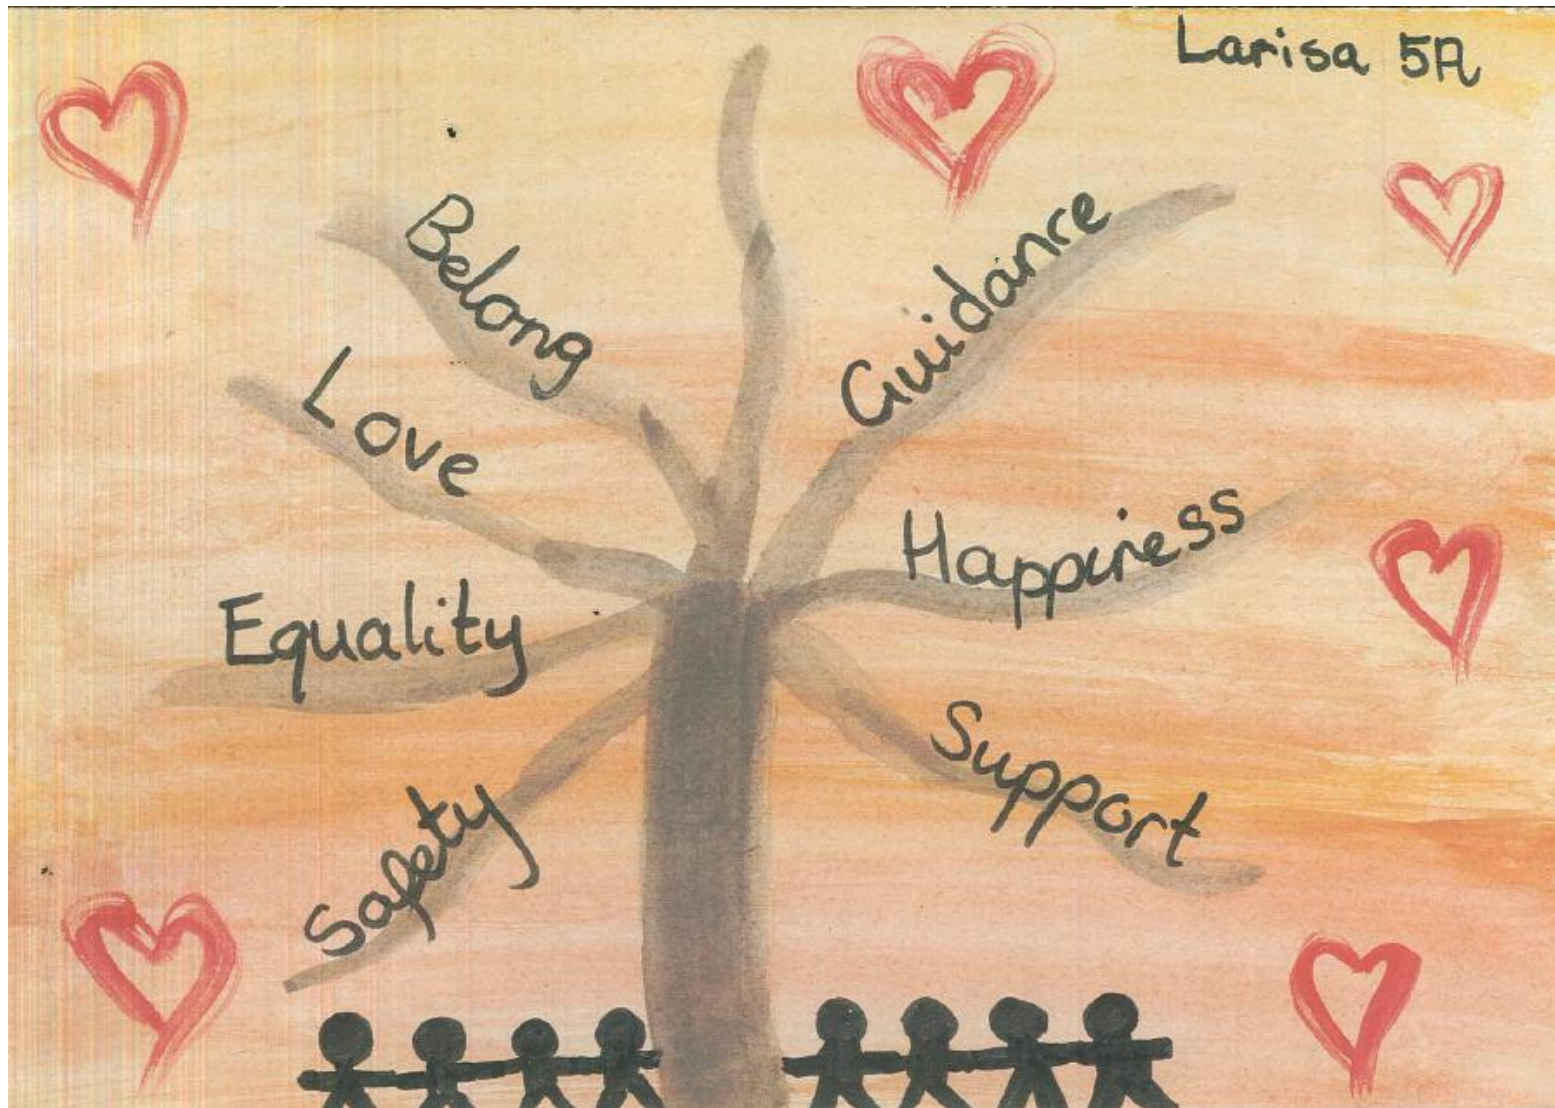

I feel safe at school because everyone is nice and never rude.”

St Benedict's Primary School / Mainstream / Year 6

“I love the Inclusion Hub; I am happy and safe. Benny is the best!”

St Benedict's Primary School / SEND, Resource Base / Year 5

“Inclusion is a tree where every branch welcomes us and everyone belongs.”

Marlborough Primary School

Tasneem

“Inclusion is making sure everyone has a place on the branch. Different stories, different cultures, different abilities and different beliefs—but one community where every child feels safe, valued and heard. Some disabilities are visible and some are hidden, yet every child deserves understanding, support and the opportunity to belong. Together, we make Birmingham brighter.”

NansenPrimarySchool /Option B

“Inclusion means having friends who care, adults who listen and a school where everyone is welcome. It means feeling happy to be yourself, safe to share your ideas and confident that your voice matters.

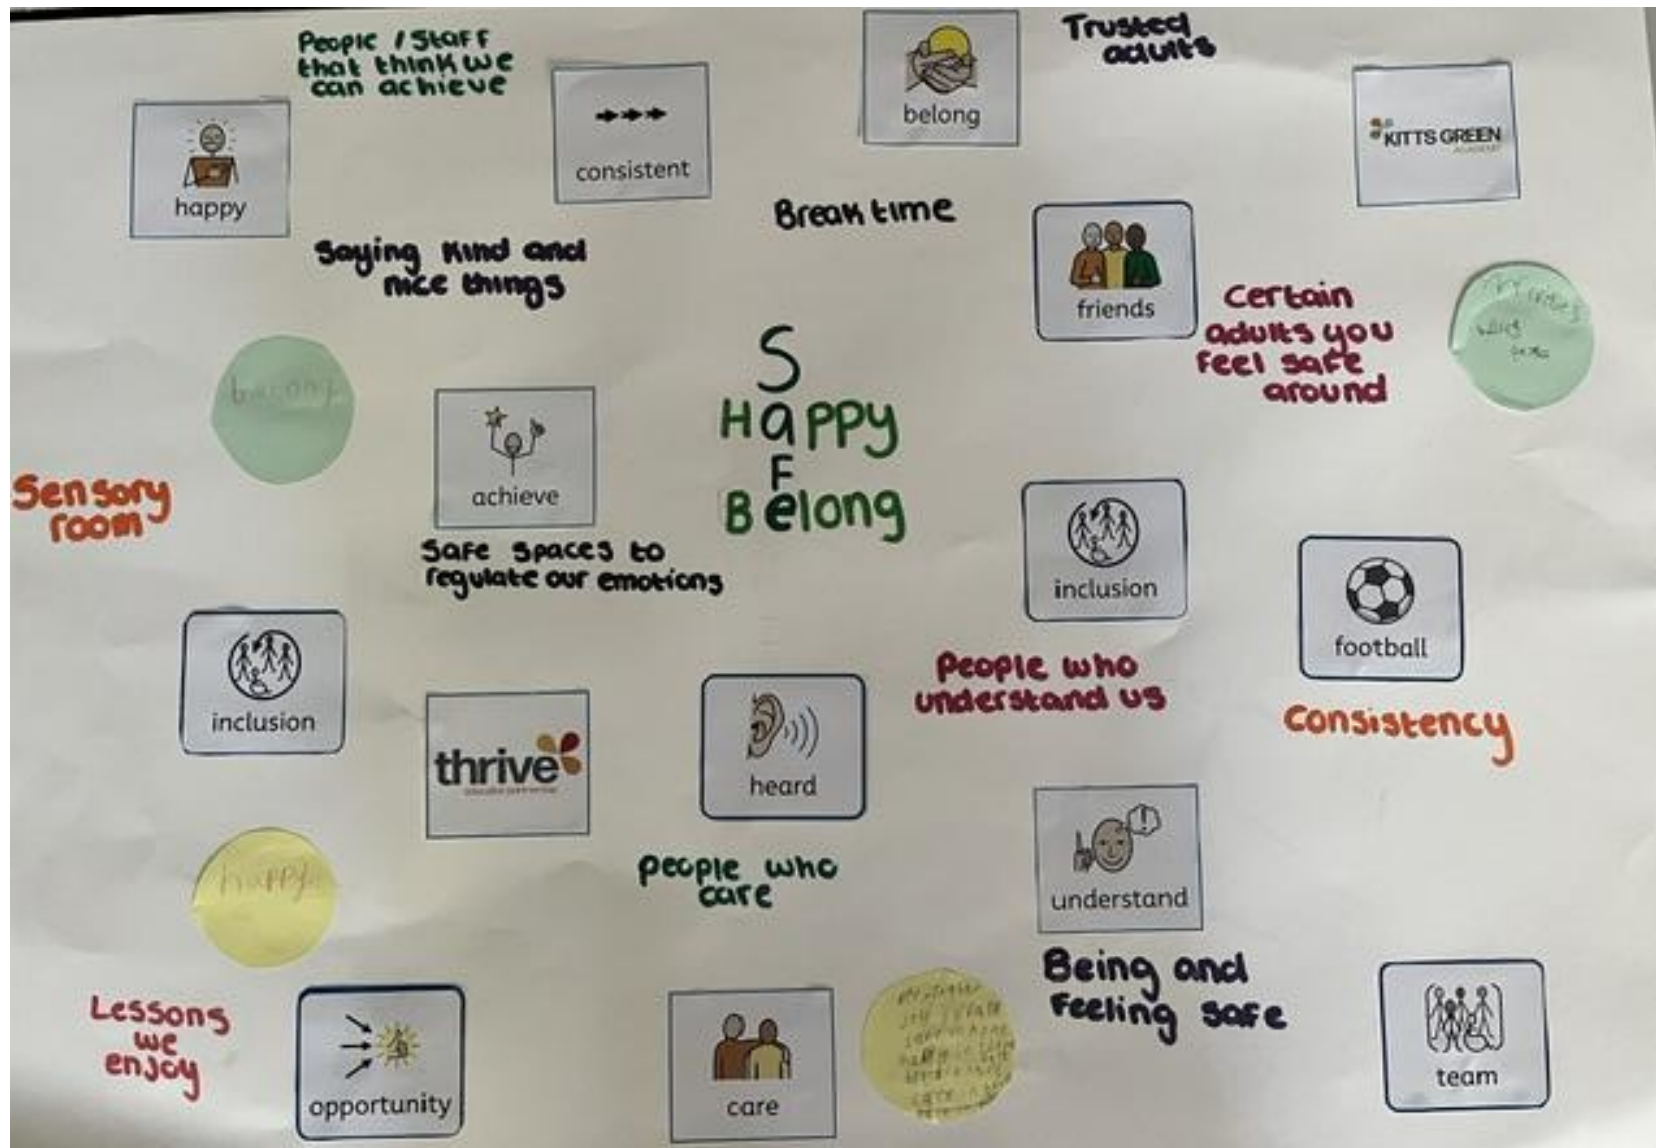

Together, we can build a Birmingham where every child is seen, heard and valued.”

Nansen Primary School / Option B

“Work together, play together, friends together.”

Wilson Stuart School / Special School

“Kitts Green Academy is an SEMH school for boys aged 7 - 14 in East Birmingham and our Year 8 cohort worked on this project as a team. We discussed what about Kitts Green makes them feel included and that they can be safe, happy and belong.”
